to represent us in the Erbil International Book Fair 3, organized by Al Mada Corporation for Media, Culture and Art, noting that we have never granted any authorization to any other party to represent us in this fair for this year. We comply with all the conditions mentioned in the internal regulations sent with the invitation.

General Note:

The administration of the fair will cancel the repeated authorizations and will withhold the author of the repeated authorization from participating in the fair. The authorized person is not allowed to transfer his authorization to any other party. It's necessary to receive the authorization before December 15, 2007 deadline, enclosed with the participation fees.
